General Information

The Shaumbra Institute will provide complete training, course materials, curriculums, videos, marketing support and other materials necessary for you to conduct your schools.

You will be notified if you are accepted for the training within 14 days after sending this form.

Please note the following important information:

1. In order to be considered for the New Energy Sychrotize (NES) Teacher Training program, you must meet one of the following eligibility requirements:

Attended the original Eleuthera Sychrotize System workshop in The Bahamas, January 2006 and have conducted at least three (3) professional client facilitations

Attended the New Energy Sychrotize workshop in Lincoln City, Oregon, USA in July 2007 and have conducted at least three (3) professional client facilitations Attended a New Energy Sychrotize workshop taught by a Shaumbra Institute Teacher.

Purchased the New Energy Sychrotize material as a home study program and have conducted at least three (3) professional client facilitations.

2. Attending the Teacher Training does not guarantee certification. In case you are not certified, 65% of your registration fee will be reimbursed. No other costs will be compensated for.

3. After successfully completing the training you will be required to sign a teacher agreement.

4. As a certified teacher, you will be authorized to conduct Shaumbra Institute schools and workshops on a revenue-sharing basis. Of the gross registration fees the teacher will receive 70%.

5. Two certified teachers are required for:

- DreamWalker and NES classes with more than 12 students;
- SES classes, irrespective of their size;
- Aspectology classes with more than 4 students.
